1 Sydney Brass

Sunday, March 11, 2012

Brass Quintet

Sydney Brass is one of Australia's oldest and most respected chamber music ensembles.

The original ensemble was formed in 1958 and gained an immediate reputation as a dynamic group of fine instrumentalists. The limited repertoire for brass quintet led to the commissioning of new works by Australian composers and an adoption of expanding international repertoire.

Since its rejuvenation in 1987, the versatility of Sydney Brass has enabled it to perform all genres of music from the Renaissance through to modern day musicals such as Leonard Bernstein's West Side Story and hits from the Beatles.

2 Osmosis

Sunday, May 6, 2012

Period Woodwind Quintet from the Netherlands

Based in the Netherlands, OSMOSIS is an exciting new ensemble consisting of five musicians of international standing who share a love of early wind instruments and their repertoire.

The quintet's focus is the early Romantic period, a time of experimentation and rapid change in wind instrument construction. At that time the soundscape of the wind section was changing from one decade to the next and expanding in range and dynamic flexibility.

Each of the performers in OSMOSIS has their own international performing career. We can expect to hear them perform music by Reicha, Beethoven, Danzi and Mengal.

3 Resonants Sunday, June 24, 2012

Choir

The Resonants are an independent ensemble of young professionals and university students, based in Canberra, who under the directorship of Helen Swan came together through a love of choral music.

Since their formation in 1990, the Resonants have held many concerts around the Canberra region and were finalists in the ABC Classic FM 2006 inaugural national choir of the year competition.

The Resonants sing a variety of styles of music, from different periods and in different languages. Madrigals, spirituals, jazz, contemporary - they are all part of the Resonants repertoire. They will perform a cappella choral music for us in Batemans Bay.

5 Goldner Quartet Sunday, November 11, 2012

String Quartet

Launched in 1995, the Goldner String Quartet is named after Richard Goldner, founder of the original Musica Viva Australia. The players are all well known to Australian and international audiences through solo performances, recordings and their concurrent membership of the Australian Ensemble (resident at UNSW).

After their Wigmore Hall debut in 1997 unanimous audience and critical acclaim has ensured the Goldner Quartet's regular return invitations to London and many prestigious international festivals.

The Quartet regularly appears at major music festivals around Australia in addition to national tours for Musica Viva.

"Australia's greatest string quartet" ISCM World Music Days

This concert is presented courtesy of Music Viva Countrywide and with the generous support of St Peter's Anglican College, Broulee

The South Coast Music Society is proud of its record of presenting fine music performances to local audiences. Over the last 18 years, we have seen international and local artists of outstanding skill and musical understanding perform in Batemans Bay.

The Society's small dedicated committee is built on a desire to share inspirational musical experiences in our local area. Performers who have appeared on international stages, as well as Australia's own magnificent venues such as the Sydney Opera House, are pleased to appear at our own local venue, St Bernard's Church in Batehaven. Here they are privy to excellent acoustics, beautiful surroundings and appreciative audiences. Unlike in large concert venues in capital cities, our audiences have the advantage of being close to the performers so that they can feel a greater sense of connection with the performance.

The Society is maintained by the generous support of volunteers, sponsors, local media and above all its members. Please ensure this continues through 2012 by becoming a member or renewing your membership. A bonus of a complimentary programme at each concert is being introduced in 2012 for financial members - another reason to join us.

Our programme for 2012 is exciting and varied - mark each concert in your diary now!
